Homecoming '69

Homecoming 1968 was an exciting new experience for the Teddies. It consisted of three exuberating days of activities including the Senior Breakfast, an unusual coronation, faculty skit, Air-oloha" dance, the victory game over West 47-18, and the homecoming dance to conclude the eventful days of October 2-4.

G. Lewis pronounces M. Axvig and M. Hubbard unlawfully wedded by the sign of the Dogpatch.

Square dancing and Marryin' Sam set the mood for the night in Dogpatch, November 9, 1968. Senior Blue-Tri members treated their dates to a memorable evening of vegetable corsages, cider, and donut holes, opening doors, chauffering and Sadie pigs. Li'l Abner and Daisy Mae—Mike Hubbard and Marilyn Axvig—reigned over the celebration.

Winter Sports Craze

The 1969 Winter Sports celebrations commenced on January 23, with the scene set under the theme, "Winter Sports Craze." Sno-Sculpturing and Dog Sled Races highlighted the day. Activities concluded with the annual Winter Sports Day dance with music by the Perspectives.

Winter Sports Day King candidates were introduced by Craig Carlson at the coronation on Friday. A fine imaginative program was presented consisting of a Laugh In Sketch, "The Battle of The Cool Guys," and lots of current jokes.

King candidates included Danny Carpenter, Stan Clausen, Jack Frost, Myron Ostby, and Chuck Sundboom. Danny Carpenter was crowned Roosevelt's new WSD King by Colleen Brown, 1968 May Day Queen.

Craig Carlson and Deanna Nelson did a commendable job in planning an exceptional celebration.

Three hundred and twenty couples attended this year's Blue-Tri Snoball held on February 8 at Coffman Memorial. The theme was "Frosty Fantasy" and began early in the evening with many couples attending coketails. The action then moved to Coffman's ballroom where the couples danced to the music of the Nyles. Dinner at a fashionable restaurant was the climax of an exciting evening with many couples going out bowling, sliding, and to private parties. Credit for the gala affair was attributed to the careful planning of Carla Johnson, chairman.

Champions

For the third time at Roosevelt High School Jerry Sullivan has coached his football team to City, Twin City Championship. The team compiling an undefeated 9-0-1 record.

Co-Captains Jim Herman and Myron Ostby provided outstanding leadership. Which was a determining factor in the outcome of the gridders undefeated season.

Included were many outstanding individual performers such as Danny Carpenter, Myron Ostby, and Mike Ramerth who received All-City honors. And Bruce Hanson and Jim Herman who were selected to numerous "ALL" teams, including ALL-STATE.

As Tim Holst summarized the season, "I don't know how many hours we've put into football, but it was worth every minute of it.

Council discussion

Student Council

Among the aims of the Student Council this year were the creation of a better student-teacher relationship, more open communication, the presentation of an imaginative Homecoming, Winter Sports Day, and the enactment of a Student Bill of Rights.

Under the leadership of Bill Marsh, the Council struggled throughout the year to accomplish and maintain these goals.

Officers were: Bill Marsh, Pres., C. Nelson, V.P., C. McLaughlin, Sgt. at Arms, G. Bastian, Parliamentarian, R. Spangler, and K. Risvold, Sec., and Mr. Freeburg, advisor.

Bill Marsh casually conducts meeting.

Standard Staff

This year's Standard Staff consists of thirty four nosey reporters. These are the top snoops in the school and they are responsible for putting together twenty one editions of the Roosevelt Standard. The staff produced a "WELCOME" issue for the opening day of school, and will close out its regular issues with the "SENIOR" edition for Senior Day in June.
